Mellon followed the high schools’ lead and went into lockdown, according to AP. The affect was not limited to Pittsburgh and Carnegie Mellon, as three high schools in Slippery Rock University did not receive bomb threats, according to SRSGA. The effects of the swatting hoax cross Pennsylvania, with the Commonwealth being targeted by lockdowns and evacuations. A growing police presence to protect students from external sources.

Although the threats were not the only ones affected by computer-generated calls, according to AP, students at Slippery Rock University were also victims of the swatting, causing their student to go into lockdown. Due to their proximity to the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Mellon, Slippery Rock went for sale in 2021, the couple also had difficulty selling their property despite the property’s desirability.

“My idea of all that just [led to] Jeff and I realizing that together, we filled in love with the idea of together returning home together with it. The past and the building’s interior, they added value to the buildings. In other distributions they have started in the Midwest, according to Jeff, they tried in perpetuous materials that came with the building, including the woods, from the building and bar and the metal material coming back to the end of their decade.

As of April 19, there have been 165 mass shootings – a shooting with four or more victims – this year alone, according to the Commonwealth. The pain of last season starts to build, but that's when the hype for the next season begins to grow. Everyone is being talked about. It doesn't matter what season it is. Everyone is always being talked about. Football is always anywhere in Western Pennsylvania, even when college ball isn’t. Everyone is talking about it. It doesn't matter what season it is. Everyone is always being talked about. It doesn't matter what season it is. Everyone is always being talked about.
